PROPOSAL FOR THE REVISION OF THE STATUTE OF THE AFRICAN INSTITUTE FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND PLANNING

1. Under the terms of its decision 32/428 B, adopted by the General Assembly at its 111th meeting, on 21 December 1977, the Assembly:

(a) Took note of the report of the Secretary-General ¹ and of the observations made in the Fifth Committee, on 15 December 1977, by the Chairman of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions; ²

(b) Decided to request the Economic and Social Council to transmit the statutes of the African Institute for Economic Development and Planning to the Conference of African Ministers of Finance, Planning and Economic Development of the Economic Commission for Africa for consideration and revision in the light of the proposals made by the Secretary-General in his report.

2. At its 207th meeting, on 27 March 1979, the Conference of Ministers of the Economic Commission for Africa adopted its resolution 350 (XIV), paragraphs 1 and 2 of which read as follows:

(a) Adopts the revised statutes of the Institute as amended by the Fifth Committee of the General Assembly and endorsed by the Executive Committee of the Commission after amendment of article IV.2 (d) which is contained in the annex to the present resolution;

(b) Invites the Executive Secretary to submit the statutes as adopted through the Economic and Social Council for approval by the General Assembly.

3. The Economic and Social Council, in turn, by its decision 1972/72 of 3 August 1979, decided to bring to the attention of the General Assembly at its thirty-fourth session the revised statutes of the African Institute for Economic Development and Planning, annexed to resolution 350 (XIV) of the Conference of Ministers.

4. The text of the revised statutes is accordingly reproduced in the Annex for consideration by the Fifth Committee in conjunction with Chapter III of the Report of the Economic and Social Council.

Statutes of the African Institute for Economic Development and Planning

Article I

Purpose and Functions of the Institute

1. The primary purpose of the Institute shall be the training of specialists and senior officials of those services and institutions in Africa responsible for economic development and planning. Such training shall include appropriate supportive research activities. The Institute shall also organize seminars of varied duration on practical problems of national or regional development and on the planning of various economic factors. The functions of the Institute shall be as follows:

(a) To provide at its headquarters, training courses of varying duration on various aspects of development and planning. The details of such courses and the requirements for admission shall be determined periodically by the Governing Council on the advice of the Advisory Board on Studies and Research. The Council will also determine the type and nature of the certificates to be awarded at the end of such activities;

(b) To organize in African countries, in cooperation with the appropriate national services and the specialized agencies concerned, seminars of varying duration on practical problems of national and regional development and planning;

(c) To provide advisory services at the request of Governments and in so far as the training programme allows;

(d) To establish documentation which will be made available throughout Africa to research workers, to national institutions dealing with economic development problems and to subregional organizations in the field of economic planning and development;

(e) In undertaking the four functions as mentioned in (a) through (d) above, the Institute should take into account the paramount importance of promoting and defending the economic independence of African countries.

Article II

Location of the Institute

1. The headquarters of the Institute shall be located in Dakar, Senegal.
