

Inaugural lecture of the annual Adebayo Adedeji lecture series (UNCC, Delegates Lounge)

Background

The Economic Commission for Africa launched the annual Adebayo Adedeji lecture series in March 2014, during the Conference of Ministers, to honour and recognize the intellectual contribution to development, service to Africa and humanity of Prof. Adebayo Adedeji. Each year, the lecture series will feature prominent scholars and personalities who have contributed to the development of Africa. Mr. Donald Kaberuka will be the guest speaker of the inaugural Adebayo Adedeji Lecture Series and he will provide insights into his contribution to the continent's development, throughout his mandate as the President of the African Development Bank.

Attendance: This event is open to all those interested to attend.

Date: 30 March 2015

Time: 1pm - 2:30pm

Venue: United Nations Conference Centre in Addis Ababa – Delegates Lounge
