

Leveraging Technology and Fostering Collaboration In the COVID-19 Battle

Eric Jing

Executive Chairman, Ant Financial Services Group

Director, Alibaba Group Board of Directors

Please stay safe and strong.

In the face of this adversity, we stand together.

Using digital technology to champion the underprivileged towards a shared prosperity

Two Battles & Two Forces

Two critical battles: health + economy

Two driving forces: digital technology + collaboration

1

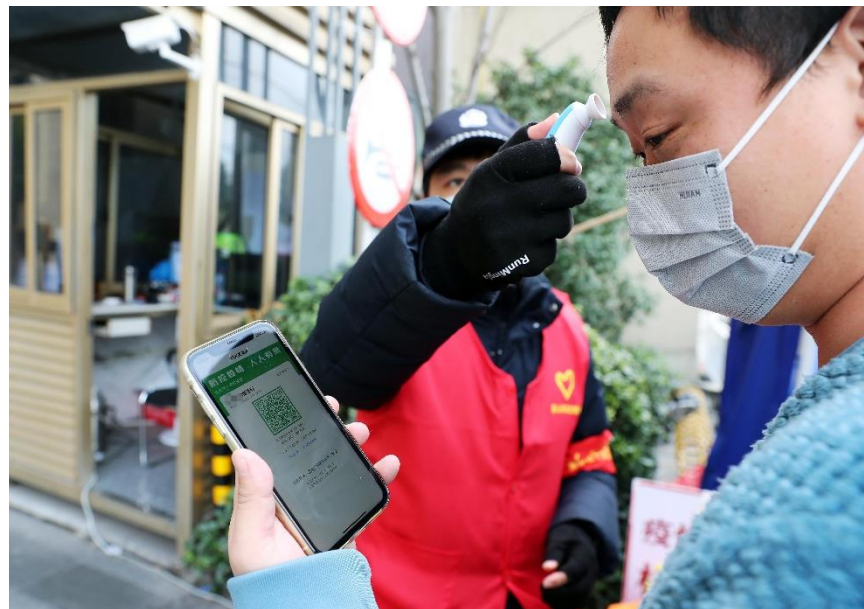

Battle for Health

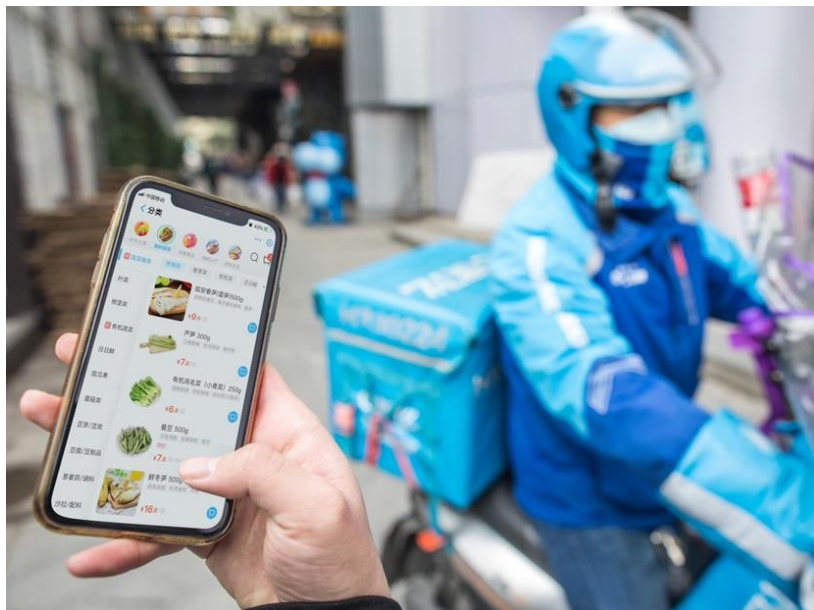

1. Medical supplies and treatment knowledge

2. Useful information to keep people informed

3. Contactless services to maintain people's well-being

2

Battle for Economy

1. Digital transformation to keep the business running and people being employed

The picture shows the offline operation before the outbreak.

2. Contactless loans to support SMEs

3. Utilizing digital platforms to help distribute subsidies in an efficient & cost-effective way

The world will emerge stronger as we stand together

Digital Technology

Collaboration

I look forward to learning more from you

Thank you!
